

San Francisco Call, Volume 81, Number 37, 6 January 1897 — MADAME MODJESKA HERE [article]

MADAME MODJESKA HERE

The Actress Arrived From Her "Ranch" Yesterday Morning.

In Her Company Are Mrs. Edgerton and Miss Frances Jolliffe of This City.

Mme. Modjeska arrived from her home near Los Angeles yesterday morning and is at present at the residence of Dr. Pawlicki, 1119 Van Ness avenue. The favorite actress is accompanied by her husband, Count Charles Bozenta.

For several years Mme. Modjeska has been living on her "ranch," as she delights to call it, a pretty and picturesque retreat among the mountains in the southern part of the State. Her health has been poor, but life in the California hills is surely bringing strength and vigor to the Polish lady.

On the 25th inst. she will open at the Baldwin for a two weeks' engagement, to be followed by as long a period in several of the interior cities.

In her theatrical company are Joseph

In her theatrical company are Joseph Haworth, the leading man, and Mrs. Frances B. Edgerton and Miss Frances Jolliffe, two ladies well and favorably known in this City. Mrs. Edgerton is president of the Mercantile Library Auxiliary and has been prominent in dramatic and elocutionary circles for years. She will play the role of Elizabeth in Mme. Modjeska's "Mary Stuart." Mrs. Edgerton is of a tall, commanding presence and otherwise well fitted to assume the part.

Miss Jolliffe, who is a member of the prominent family of that name here, is a '93 graduate of Vassar. While in college she showed marked ability as an amateur actress and upon the finishing of her educational course began the study for the stage in New York. Her appearance at the Baldwin will be looked for with interest on the part of her host of friends.

Besides "Mary Stuart" Mme. Modjeska will give "Lady Macbeth" and Sudermann's play of "Magda."

This article has been automatically clipped from the San Francisco Call, organised into a single column, then optimised for display on your computer screen. As a result, it may not look exactly as it did on the original page. The article can be seen in its original form in the page view.