

1866

TESTIMONIAL TO MR. LAZARD.—Mr. E. Lazard, who leaves for Europe by steamer to-day, received the following flattering testimonial from his Polish friends yesterday:

SAN FRANCISCO, January 9, 1866.

Elie Lazard, Esq.:

DEAR SIR:—The Polish Committee of California learns with a sincere regret your departure from their midst. Your noble heart endeared you to every one who knew you. Your liberal deeds in behalf of Poland, and of liberty, shall remain forever engraved in the hearts of every lover of freedom and of every true son of Poland. In our last struggle, as President of the Polish-American Society on the Pacific Coast, you have firmly and nobly upheld the cause of our unhappy country. Receive here our most heartfelt thanks for your exertion.

However much we shall miss you here, we know, and every son of Poland knows, that wherever Elie Lazard shall be, there will be a staunch, a true friend of Poland, and of liberty.

With profound respects and sincere affections, we have the honor to remain, your most obedient servants,

C. MEYER,
MARTEN PRAG,
DR. L. PAWLICKI,
R. KORWIN PIOTROWSKY,
K. BIELAWSKI,
J. ANDRZEJOWSKI, Secretary.

1906

Forty years ago last Monday night a farewell dinner was given at Gamba's restaurant/ to Charles Lazard of the firm of Lazard Freres. Mr. Lazard was about to visit his native land, France. The committee of arrangements consisted of A. Caselli, Theodore Veisin, Charles Schmitt and Donald McLennan. Sixty gentlemen were present, among them many of the more prominent bankers and merchants. Before sailing the following day, Mr. Lazard, who had served as president of the Polish-American Society on the Pacific Coast, received a flattering testimonial from the Polish committee of California—C. Meyer, Marten Prag, Dr. L. Pawlicki, R. Korwin Plotrowsky, K. Bielawski and J. Andrzejowski, secretary.

GAMBA RESTAURANT.

A FIRST-CLASS RESTAURANT, under the above name, will be opened on Wednesday, the 26th inst., at the old CALIFORNIA ENGINE HOUSE, Market street, adjoining the Oriental Block. It will be conducted by MRS. F. GAMBA, who will personally attend to it: and feeling thankful for former patronage, respectfully solicits a continuance of the same. A fine room, sufficient for the accommodation of a hundred persons, is elegantly fitted up, and everything desirable will be found there.

Orders for outside Dinner Parties promptly attended to. (fe25-1w) F. GAMBA.