

Saturday, December 3, 2011 at the Polish Club

Art & Performance Crawl at the Polish Club, 6:00-9:00 p.m.

MAPP: All Day Art & Performance Crawl | Mission Dist.

5. The Polish Club

3040 22nd Street (at Shotwell, between Van Ness and Folsom)

Curator: KALW 91.7FM Local Public Radio

6:00-6:15pm Introduction of the program

6:15-6:25 Casey Miner (Radio Producer)

6:25-6:40 John Reichmuth (Comedian with Kasper Hauser Comedy Troupe)

6:40-6:55 John Mooallem (Writer, New York Times Magazine)

6:55-7:25pm Quinn Deveaux (Musician)

7:30pm-7:45pm Glynn Washington (Radio Producer and Host of NPR's "Snap Judgment")

7:45-8:00pm Julie Caine (Radio Producer)

8:00-8:40pm Live edition of "Crosscurrents" radio show, feat Martina Castro and Ben Trefny, Nikki Silva of The Kitchen Sisters

8:40-9:00pm Rupa Marya and the April Fishes (Musician) Local artist (and radio producer!)
visual exhibition Ali Budner

📅 Saturday	🕒 6:00pm until 9:00pm
------------	-----------------------

☰ Join KALW for its final 70th anniversary event, in conjunction with the Mission Arts and Performance Project!

This special evening will feature oral storytellers, radio producers, and musicians performing on the theme of "Beginnings and Endings." We'll also be bringing you an episode of KALW's "Crosscurrents" LIVE, with audience participation!

Cost: FREE!

Performers include:

Glynn Washington (radio producer and host, NPR's "Snap Judgment")
Nikki Silva (radio producer, The Kitchen Sisters)
John Reichmuth (improv artist, Kasper Hauser Comedy Troupe)
Jon Mooallem (writer, New York Times Magazine)
Casey Miner (radio producer, KALW)
Julie Caine (radio producer, KALW)
Martina Castro (radio producer, KALW)
Ben Trefny (radio producer, KALW)
Ali Budner (radio producer and artist, KALW)

With music by Quinn Deveaux and Mekit Hadero.

Invite your friends! Can't wait to see you there!

